

Freehold Township Police Department

Diversity Report (2023)

Pursuant to the December 2021 Attorney General Guideline "Promoting Diversity in Law Enforcement Recruiting and Hiring," the Freehold Township Police Department is committed to doing all that we can to hiring staff who reflect the communities that we serve. See N.J.S.A.52:17B-4.10.

2020 Census Data indicates that Freehold Township's population is 75% White, 4% Black, 10% Hispanic, and 6% Asian and 5% other. As of December 31, 2023, the Freehold Township Police Department had 77 Officers including full and part time positions: 84% were White, 3% were Black, 9% Hispanic, 4% Asian and 0 % other, 5% are women.

Through job fairs, such as the outreach event held by the Monmouth County Chiefs of Police at Brookdale Community College, community and faith based events, many held in conjunction with our County-Wide Chaplaincy Program, we will continue to strive to increase the number of female officers on staff and will enhance our efforts to seek diverse applicants to join our office.
